

Opening on Monday December 12th 2022, TOZI Grand Cafe is a new Italian restaurant set to bring the classic elegance of Europe's Grand Cafes to Battersea Power Station.

Part of the new art'otel London Battersea Power Station, and facing the iconic Grade II* Power Station, which opened its doors to the public for the first time on 14th October 2022, TOZI Grand Cafe is the third TOZI restaurant and second London restaurant from the TOZI team. The food offering will be led by Executive Head Chef, Lee Streeton (Rocco Forte Hotels, 45 Jermyn St, Daphne's), a member of the Royal Academy of Culinary Arts and two-time Hotel Chef of the Year nominee in tandem with TOZI Victoria's Head Chef Maurilio Molteni (Neal Street Restaurant, Prism, Soho House Group), whose cooking remains rooted in Northern Italian traditions, having overseen prestigious operations in Milan, Bergamo and Lake Como.

Streeton and Molteni have drawn from Europe's famous cafés for this new London all-day dining concept. Breakfast will feature Italian takes on brunch such as baked eggs, spianata piccante, puttanesca, potatoes, whilst for Afternoon Tea from 3pm, "Pasticceria Mignon" will be offered. TOZI favourites including veal Milanese and TOZI's signature lobster linguine will delight for lunch and dinner. Sharing cicchetti, such as beef carpaccio, pickled mushrooms & parmesan and baked scallop with nduja will be served all day alongside salads and antipasti.

TOZI Grand Cafe has been designed by award-winning Spanish artist and designer, Jaime Hayon, founder of Hayon studio recognized by Wallpaper* magazine as one of the most influential creators of the past decade and lauded as a "visionary" and one of the most creative icons by Times Magazine. The double-height restaurant is dotted with hanging sculptural light fittings and a number of Hayon's striking tapestries throughout the space, as part of an exhibition of one-off pieces.

With floor to ceiling windows and a beautiful alfresco terrace, TOZI Grand Cafe will suit any occasion throughout the day or evening, welcoming guests with Italian charm. They will be able to choose from an aperitivo menu that includes barrel-aged Negronis, Bellinis or seasonal spritzes, as well as an all-Italian wine list, perfectly matched to the food offering.

"I am incredibly excited for the launch of TOZI Grand Cafe. We're taking the essence of TOZI Victoria and TOZI Amsterdam into a stunning new space, alongside exquisite art and design. Our elegant Italian menu is inspired by the theatre of Europe's Grand Cafes, and we are looking forward to bringing a little of la dolce vita to the heart of Battersea." art'otel London Battersea Power Station Executive Head Chef, Lee Streeton.

About Battersea Power Station

Battersea Power Station is one of central London's largest, most visionary and eagerly anticipated new riverside neighbourhoods. The regeneration project is delivering a vibrant, mixed-use destination offering a community of homes, shops, restaurants, offices, culture and leisure venues, as well as 19 acres of public space, all serviced by an extension to the London Underground Northern Line.

The Grade II* listed Power Station and Electric Boulevard, a new high street for London, opened to the public on Friday 14th October, with the first tranche of shops, bars, restaurants and leisure venues welcoming visitors. Further retailers will open through 2022 and 2023. Battersea Power Station is also home to events venues, new office space and 254 new residential apartments. The first residents moved into the Power Station in 2021.
