

We work with approximately a further 20 employment outreach partners:

- Southwark Works – London based employability programme with LB Southwark
- Princes Trust - UK Wide charity to support young vulnerable people back into work- we have secured an apprentice outcome via Princes Trust in our Finance Team
- Brent Works - North West London based employability programme with LB Brent, we have secured several employment and apprenticeship outcomes via our partnership with Brent Work
- The Clink - A London based charity supporting ex-offenders back into employment. In 2018 we have supported 2 ex-offender back into work, including an apprentice Chef
- The Camden Society - a London based charity that works with young people with mental health and learning disabilities. We have offered interview and work experience support to their customers
- Cross River Partnership - a central London Public-Private partnership that helps us to network our employment opportunities to job seekers in the local areas of Camden, Westminster, Islington and Lambeth
- CT Skills -a Nottingham based training provider offering pre-employment training to long-term unemployed looking to secure work with hospitality and other sectors
- Southbank London - a BID that networks our employment opportunities for those living close to the Southbank in London
- East Midlands Chamber - a business community in Nottingham that networks our employments opportunities across the local area
- Dominion - a London housing associations that provides outreach to their tenants, helping them secure employment
- Groundwork - a Nottingham based skills and employment provider
- Hackney Works - a London based employability programme helping Hackney residents back into work
- Drive Forward Foundation - a local London charity that help young people who have been in care find employment
- House of Barnabas -a central London homeless charity providing employability skills
- Step-Ahead - London based employability programme
- Remit - Nottingham & Leeds based skills and pre-employment provider who provide candidates to our employment opportunities
- Opportunity Lambeth - London based employability programme with LB Lambeth
- Nottingham Jobs Hub - a network of local employability providers that promote our local vacancies to job seekers
- Employ SE1 - a south London jobs hubs promoting local jobs for local people
- Waltham Forest - London based employability programme with LB Waltham Forest
- Westminster Works - London based employability programme with City of Westminster
- LB Hackney Open day
- Several JobcentrePlus events - Westminster, Kennington, Greenwich, Tottenham and Brixton- all have led to job outcomes
- Southwark Apprenticeship - has led to an apprenticeship outcome